ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

Recruiting Service.

There remains in the Treasury the sum of $38,379 52 appropriated, in 1833, under the specific head of "bounties and premiums," which is no longer needed for that object, in consequence of the change made in the mode of enlisting by the act of the 2d March, 1833. Should Congress think proper to authorize the transfer of a part of this sum from the head of bounties and premiums, it will obviate the necessity of any appropriation for the Adjutant General's Department for the year 1835, and the same should be directed to be carried to the credit of these heads, viz.

Two months' extra pay, per act of 2d March, 1833	-	$ 53 34
